Overview

Contractors who wish to work at BHP Mt Arthur Coal must complete an online Asset Induction before coming to site. The online BHP Billiton Asset Induction (Contractors) replaces the previous face-to-face Mt Arthur Coal Surface Induction for new contractors.

This induction costs $110 including GST per person and is booked through the Pegasus Safety Inductions Booking Portal. Once the administrator has booked their employees into the induction through the portal, you will be emailed a log in to send to them so they can complete the course online. At the successful completion of the training, the employee will be issued the induction competency, now visible on their profile in the Onsite Track Easy database.

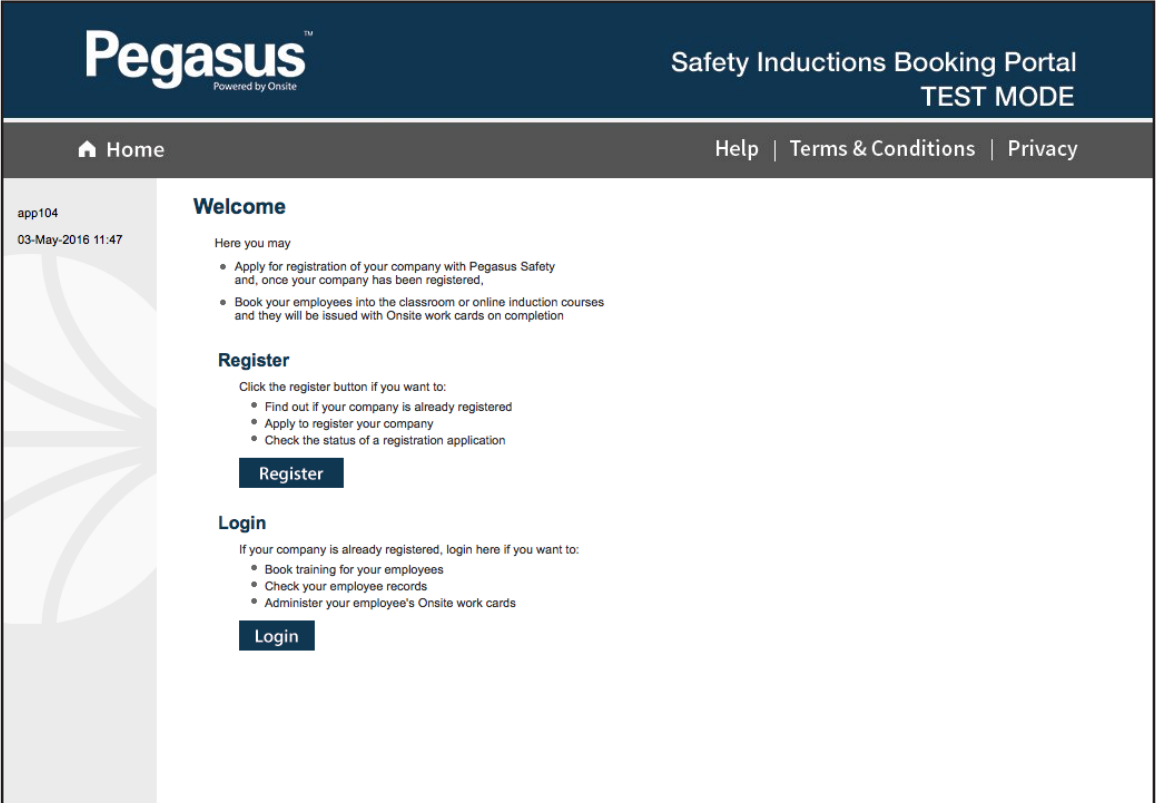

Depending on their role, contractors may also need to book their employee's into the Maintenance Induction (Contractors Appointment OR No Appointment) and/or CHPP Plant Induction (Contractors Appointment OR No Appointment). These inductions cost $35 + GST each and are booked and completed online.

The booking information will now need to be approved by Pegasus. Once your booking has been approved, your employee will receive an email with login details to complete the online induction.

Step 26>

You have successfully booked your employee into the BHP Billiton Asset Induction (Contractors).

Once you have booked your employee into the BHP Billiton Asset Induction (Contractors) and their ID has been approved, you'll be emailed a login details to send to them so they can complete the online induction.

The induction consists of 10 questions that should take approximately 30 minutes to answer. The induction requires a 100% pass mark. On successful completion, the employee will have the competency added to their profile in the Onsite Track Easy database and their contractor card posted via Australia Post to the company's postal address.

Until their card arrives, they may access site by manually entering their Onsite ID number, which displays on the certificate at the successful completion of the all required inductions.

Booking the MAC CHPP Plant Induction and/or MAC Maintenance Induction in Onsite

Please note>

After your employee has successfully completed the BHP Billiton Asset Induction (Contractors), the next induction you book depends on your employee's role.

- If they work in an electrical, mechanical or supervisory role, then they'll first need an Appointment Letter from site.
- If they work in another role in the Maintenance Facilities and/or CHPP Plant, then they won't need an Appointment Letter from site.

Do need an Appointment Letter:

Collect and email the required documents (detailed below) to nswec.document.control@bhpbilliton.com to receive an Appointment Letter. Once you have the Letter, book your employee into the online Maintenance Induction (Contractors Appointment) and/or CHPP Plant Induction (Contractors Appointment).

Do not need an Appointment Letter:

Book them into the online Maintenance Induction (Contractors No Appointment) and/or CHPP Plant Induction (Contractors No Appointment).

Please use this user guide to assist you in booking your employee into the induction. However instead of selecting BHP Billiton Asset Induction (Contractors) throughout the process, select Maintenance Induction (Contractors Appointment OR No Appointment) and/or CHPP Plant Induction (Contractors Appointment OR No Appointment).

Pegasus will now verify that your employee may complete the induction/s. On approval, you will be emailed the induction login details to send to your employee. On successful completion, the employee will have the competency added to their profile and card in the Onsite Track Easy database.
